

THE EX-GAY SURVIVOR CONFERENCE

Undoing the Damage
Affirming our Lives Together

JUNE 29 - JULY 1, 2007

UC Irvine, California

Focus on the Family rolls into your community with their “Love Won Out” conference promoting gay reparative therapy programs. Or, perhaps you come to learn an ex-gay program has been operating in your community for years. You wish to respond, but how? Sometimes when attempting to stand up for decency and social justice, well-meaning allies to the LGBT community have unwittingly created further trauma to ex-gay survivors as well as complications in the delicate work of on-going activism. Some people most affected by harmful ex-gay experiences see that allies can play an even more powerful role.

Becoming an effective ally requires passion and commitment as we explore the issues and dialogue with the people we seek to support. The Ex-Gay Survivor Conference will bring together both survivors and the people who care about them in order to look closely at the Ex-Gay Movement and the many ways we can respond to the harm. A special allies’ track of lively interactive workshops will look at the history and ideology of the Ex-Gay Movement as well as specific strategies that allies can take to do something about the incursion into the lives LGBT people. Allies will also get to share the knowledge and techniques they have gained through their own efforts on-line, in the media, in religious settings and in the community.

You see the harm and you have a heart to do something about it.

The Ex-Gay Survivor Conference is for you.
